

Prof (Dr). V K Tiwari holds a Ph.D in Statistics with specialization in Demography. He did Masters in Statistics from the University of Allahabad, Uttar Pradesh, India. He also did Certificate Course in Health Policy Planning and Health Economics from Nuffield Institute of Health, University of Leeds, UK. He is also honoured with the 'Fellow of the Royal Statistical Society', UK. He received several fellowships, important ones are by East-West Centre, University of Hawaii, U.S.A; UNFPA in Thailand; Partners in Population and Development, in Nanjing, China; WHO (SEARO) in Colombo; WHO Biennium Fellowship in Thailand, GTZ in Philippines, Japanese Foundation of AIDS Prevention and Research in Japan, Endeavour Executive Award from the Department of Industry, Innovation, Science, Research and Tertiary Education, Government of Australia. He was also provided consultancy to Aga Khan Foundation in Kazakhstan; Sida, India; Trained Nurses Association of India on behalf of UNICEF, India.

He is currently working as Professor in the Department of Planning & Evaluation, National Institute of Health and Family Welfare, New Delhi He has having 25 years of experience in the public health in India . He has contributed in about 50 research papers published in national and international journals in the field of Demography, Public Health, etc and authored 7 modules for distance learning programmes. He contributed in 27 research projects funded by Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India, State Governments, World Bank, World Health Organization, USAID, UNFPA, Sida and UNICEF etc. He was actively involved in capacity development projects collaboratively implemented by NIHFw along with World Bank, GTZ, USAID and Futures Group International. He has served as reviewer for national and international journals like Health Population Perspectives and Issues, Indian Journal of Community Health, Journal of Child Health, Australia, etc.

He is expert member in several prestigious organizations like Jawahar Lal Nehru (JNU) University, New Delhi; Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, All India Institute of Medical Science, New Delhi, Indian Council of Medical Research, New Delhi International Institute of Population Science, Mumbai, State Institute of Health and Family Welfare, Jaipur, Panchkula, Mohali, Haryana Institute of Public Administration, Amity University, Noida, Indian Institute of Health Management Research, New Delhi,

His areas of interest include health management information system, monitoring and evaluation of health programmes, health sector reforms, public private partnerships etc

Contact Nos. Mob: 09873041805 and 09312309283
Email vktiwari.nihfw@gmail.com